Sermon: I Have Been Wronged

Bible Verses: 1 Corinthians 6:1-7

By: Jeff Piepho

How do we bridge humility with someone doing wrong to us?

Lie we have been told: We need the _____ to resolve our disputes.

The Truth: Christians will judge the world and _____, so we do not need someone else to do the judging for us.

Lie: You, or the people in your Church, are not _____ to judge properly

The Truth: Even Christians "of _____ account" can judge our disputes!

1st: Christians can judge _____ than a secular court

2nd: Taking the matter to a secular court make Jesus _____, because of our idiotic behavior

Lie: I should take _____ action when someone wrongs me, even if that person _____

The Truth: When I sue a fellow Christian I am completely _____ and _____, even if the judge says I won.

The Truth: I should _____ being wronged and cheated over demanding retribution from my _____ family.

God has forgiven me more than can be counted; so why should I not forgive _____?

When we _____ God, and abandon love for worldly things, we gain _____ _____ because our love is properly channeled.

If, however, we love worldly things (like retribution) our love is _____ because love was designed for something much _____.
