Legalism is taking Biblical standards and sometimes applying them _____ or _____.

Legalism is also applying them because you think that will make you right with _____.

Legalism is also demanding specific requirements _____ what the Bible teaches

Christians have tremendous _____ in actions, we are not bound by Old Testament regulations.

Legalism is a _____ that makes you think you are _____.

Humility: Knowing yourself as you truly are and abasing ( _____ ) yourself.

Because of Christian freedom, the Corinthians are able to _____ sacrificed to _____.

Some people believe eating that is wrong; in _____ the Corinthians must pay special attention not to “ _____ the conscience” of others.

A defiled conscience brings confusion, resentment, _____.

If you believe you shouldn't do something but do it _____, you have sinned because you have elevated yourself _____ God!

Exercise of our freedom should not be an _____ to those weaker brothers.

What is something you do, that some Christian somewhere might think is wrong?

If we cause our Christian brother to do something he might think is wrong, we have “ _____ him” by our knowledge and _____.

Our new Christian motto:

Self-control over privilege. Love over knowledge. _____ over _____.
