Sermon: Weak

Bible Verses: 1 Corinthians 1:26-2:3

Premise: What appears to us to be “great deeds” and “great men” usually has _____ to do with true greatness in the _____ of God.

Achievement is only achievement if it involves _____.

Humility is important, because without it we become self-absorbed and we _____ God.

Jesus is our righteousness: our _____ with God is restored and he sees us as acceptable.

Jesus is our holiness: our ability to become better people who do _____.

Jesus is our redemption: we our saved from the consequence we deserve, which is _____.

True greatness comes from recognizing _____, and spreading the truth about _____.

Practical Application:

- A. I should not concern myself with becoming “someone great” in the _____ eyes.
- B. I should concern myself with becoming weak and lowly because that is the type of person _____.
- C. I should (only) boast about what Jesus has done in my life, because ultimately that’s the only thing that matters _____.
