

Series: Joshua, God's Warrior

Sermon: Don't Quit Now

Bible Verses: Joshua 13-18 and James 1:2-4

By: Jeff Piepho

Date: 10/10/2009

Whether talking about personal lives, or our faith, there is always a _____.

Even after fighting many battles, and dominating the "promise land", there were still large areas to be _____.

Deuteronomy 29:18

_____ can grow up easily, and distract from God's _____ for our lives.

* God doesn't quit until _____ is done right. ****

God doesn't command, or even want, Joshua to do this in his _____.

As part of allowing God to work, Joshua needs to be obedient even in the _____ (land allocation).

The point here? GOD IS NOT SATISFIED WITH " _____ "
OR " _____ "

We should _____ to respond in pure _____ when we face trials!

When God pushes Israel to keep going taking over more and more and more, He is developing _____ which leads to _____!

Persistence in attacking _____ that need change can overcome any
"bitter root" in our lives.

Becoming a man or woman of God, like Joshua, is not done in one or two huge events, but in _____ _____ to persevere and do what is right. It is found in giving God more control again and again each day.

TRIAL \Rightarrow TESTING \Rightarrow _____ \Rightarrow _____