Perhaps the biggest obstacle to worshipping God is _____.

PRIDE AND WORSHIP

It is impossible to worship God if you have pride because...

A) You think you are worshipping God, when you are really just "_____ your own _____."

B) God _____ your worship.

Psalm 51

David's _____ and _____ were two sins which the Old Testament gives no forgiveness for. The only resolution: _____.

Verse 1 is saying: "ACT WITH MERCY, _____ KING!" But with only two words: "_____!"

David asks for mercy and forgiveness based on the _____, not on anything in David.

David says "I am woefully inadequate to achieve perfection or earn _____!"

When your heart is shattered - that is true _____. That is a true _____.

PROMISE: GOD WILL NEVER _____ SOMEONE WITH A BROKEN AND CONTRITE HEART.

This is what God loves, a heart that is _____ and not arrogant so _____ can lift it up.

God wants our hearts to _____ over our sin, because it is serious. But then Jesus will forgive us and we can say "WHOA! GOD FORGAVE ME! What _____ God!!!"

Practical Application

1. Read the _____ (Matthew, Mark, Luke, John) in the Bible about Jesus.
2. Have an _____ view of myself (including my sin, and God's forgiveness)
3. Find _____ for what God wants to do (sacrifices, offerings, service) instead of doing cause you "should"
