You can't always get what _____!

Naaman _____ Elisha to heal him.

- Elisha was known for doing _____ things!

Naaman expected _____, rituals and incantations.

Naaman expected healing _____ after seeing the prophet and having an intense spiritual experience.

Naaman wanted to be healed, but his _____ about how that would happen were _____ met.

Sometimes when people (including Naaman) don't see God affecting things in a _____, they take it as a sign God doesn't exist, or that God doesn't _____.

When God doesn't meet my expectations, it doesn't mean God was wrong.

It simply means my expectations _____.

2 Kings 5:13 - Revolution Version

"People, if God or a prophet had told you to do something huge, wouldn't you have done it? Of course you would! So when God tells you, 'do these little things' then do them! "

God can work in the midst of the little, _____, normal things of life - and that's a _____ deal!

When we understand that God sees the _____, it's easier to _____ the little things.

I should _____ God in the _____ and daily/weekly tasks of my life, and the rest will work itself out.
