

Series: Inside God - The Attributes of Our Creator

Sermon: Independence

Bible Verses: Acts 17:22-31

By: Jeff Piepho

Date: 8-7-2010

God's incommunicable attributes: things that are _____ with humans

God's communicable attributes: things that are _____ with humans

We either _____ and understand God for who he really is, or we create a _____ version of God in our own heads.

One of God's incommunicable attributes is his _____.
God is completely autonomous and _____.

Acts 17:24 - God created _____ that exists, except Himself, and lives _____ of our time and space.

Acts 17:25 - God is so independent he doesn't _____ from _____ or anyone else; on the contrary we all need him.

John 17:24 - Before the world was even created God the Son (Jesus), God the Spirit, and God the Father all experienced _____ each other and friendship with each other. God was _____.

Isaiah 43:6-7 - We should recognize that all the good we do and _____ we see is designed by God, accomplished through God's strength, and intended for God's _____.

Zephaniah 3:17 - An independent God who needs nothing from _____, thinks I am so exceptional that he _____ with delight.