Whatever I sow, I will reap those kind of consequences _____ and _____.

If I sow to please my sinful nature, I get destruction: that could be _____ and/or _____ punishment.

Some of the hardships in my life are _____ disciplining or punishing me, because he is _____ (Hebrews 12:5-7).

If I sow to please the Spirit, I get _____ (i.e. heaven, rewards, _____).

God will reward me in _____. Many rewards are reserved for the _____.

A lie about God making things right: if it doesn't _____, it _____ will.

My life is _____ opportunity to do good and _____ to reap wonderful things for all eternity. I should not _____ my one chance.

I will not give up. I will _____, prepare for God, and _____ until my harvest comes in.

Take it home:

Read 2 John 8-9. How does someone lose the rewards? How do you hold on to them?

Read Hebrews 10:34-39. Consider some of the trials these people faced – have you faced anything similar? What would it be like? Why did they accept those trials (verse 34)?

Read Matthew 13:44-50. List three things you learned about Heaven and rewards in these verses.
