

Sermon: Choose Your Own God

Bible Verses: 1 Kings 18:21-40

By: Jeff Piepho

Date: October 1, 2011

I have a decision to make: be a _____ blown around by every wind, or a _____ with a solid belief. Stop _____ around.

Deciding who or what receives worship and _____ in my life is important.

God is not calling us to make an _____ decision; but he is calling us to _____ decision.

To prove which God is real, Elijah picks to fight with fire in a contest against the "god _____"!

Baal could not _____ his prophets, and all the false gods in my life cannot _____.

God answered Elijah and _____ he is real to all who saw the fire.

Just like those who witnessed Elijah's miracle, I should shout out, "The LORD - he is God!" and _____ commit to following Jesus Christ!!

I should " _____ " whatever tempts me to split my loyalty to God.

Taking it Home Going deeper, for those who want more!

Day 1. Read Joshua 24:14-17. What was the Israelites reasoning for following God (v17). Do the same thing, right now.

Day 2. Make a list of "Baals" in your life. What tempts you to split your loyalty to God, and how can you kill it?

Day 3. Read Luke 9:57-62. Why do you think Jesus said this? What does it have to do with 100% commitment?

Day 4. Take a moment and picture a feather flying in the wind. Picture a rock providing a foundation. What is your Spiritual life more like, and why?

Day 5. Read Exodus 34:14. What is God's name here? Why do you think this is a name for God? How should that name for God change us?