Sometimes there is a disconnect between what I _____ and what I _____.

Elijah was a powerful prophet who had done _____ directly from God.

After Elijah's epic victory, he _____.

Elijah has an encounter with God, but for him it is " _____ ", so it doesn't exactly instill _____ in him. Sometimes we are _____ encounters with God - they have become "common."

A good reminder: God is POWERFUL! God is a consuming FIRE! God can shatter MOUNTAINS! But God is _____ towards us.

Elijah's response is to pull his cloak over his face. This is a sign of _____ (I don't even have the right to _____ God.) He is remembering who God really is!

After Elijah remembers God's strength, _____, he is able to know God will care for him.

When Elijah _____ to God, he's able to have strength to follow God again, to do his job as a prophet.

When I give _____ to God, and remember God is strong and loving, I'll be able to _____ him and I'll have the strength to do the right thing.
