Hebrews 13:1-2

1 Keep on loving each other as brothers. 2 Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some people have entertained angels without knowing it.

The question: If God is vast, and wise, and incomprehensible, _____ can we experience his _____ and love?

HOSPITALITY AND GOD'S GREATNESS #1

God is _____ and _____. He had no beginning and will have no ending.

The word "everlasting" in Hebrew literally means "the _____ point." (Psalm 90:2)

When I welcome _____, in Jesus' name, I am also welcoming _____.

Practical: I should _____ all people into my home and life; and my faith should be _____ when I do this so that God gets credit for my hospitality.

In other words: To be welcoming, I should _____ people to my home and life.

HOSPITALITY AND GOD'S GREATNESS #2

God created _____ that exists, except Himself, and lives outside of our time and space. He needs _____.

In Biblical times, farmers were not allowed to pick all of their crops so that _____ would be taken care of (Leviticus 19:9-10).

Practical: Feed the people who are _____, not just your friends. In hospitality terms we would say invite them to lunch, or to your _____ for dinner!

HOSPITALITY AND GOD'S GREATNESS #3

Although God is _____ and beyond comprehension, he gives us gifts that we are supposed to use to _____ people and offer hospitality with.

Practical: I need to figure out my particular _____ so that I can use them to be hospitable.

CONCLUSION:

HOMEWORK: Find someone I don't know, outside my little circle, and _____ them my home, or to hang out, be welcoming to them because of my faith and start to make this a _____.
