The goal of our lives is to _____ God!

John Piper

Genuine affections for God are an end in themselves.

When passion and love _____ inside of us, they _____ into outward actions.

If we don't "fake" our outward actions, but use God's strength and our real joy, then God gets _____ and we get _____.

Living online: There is _____ to post "repost this status if you love Jesus" out of guilt or because we "should."

Living online: Our internal lives (heart/mind) should be _____ so much that our statuses somehow reflect that.

Living rightly: my mind and heart _____ so much that I automatically do good deeds as a result. But I must remember: loving God is the _____ and good deeds are _____.
