Proverbs 17:9

By repeating the matter, _____ who is doing wrong! Relationships are more damaged by whoever _____ it then by whoever messed up in the first place.

Proverbs 6:19

It is detestable to God when someone is _____.

Matthew 18:15-17

_____ supposed to confront someone who wrongs me _____, with gentleness, and the goal of restoration. I should follow Matthew 18:15-17.

1 Peter 5:5b-11

1 Peter 5 says, "God opposes the _____."

The Greek word for "opposes" could be translated "To set _____!"
It means to resist.

1 Peter 5 says, "God _____ to humble people."

When God lifts me up, after I humble myself, he does so with his _____ hand!

Satan wants me to be _____ and angry. I must remember that taking offense probably means I'm too _____.

If we humble ourselves, and resist the temptation to lash out against those who do us wrong, then God will:

- _____ me (mend/care for)
- make me _____

ONLINE: I should humble myself and avoid posting anything expressing anonymous _____, or against someone else to hash out personal problems. If I must post, it should be _____ things.

REAL LIFE: I should not " _____ the matter" but offer forgiveness. I also need to _____, considering other people as good as me, especially in the most difficult circumstances, so God will lift me up.

WHEN I ENCOUNTER DIFFICULT PEOPLE, IT IS AN OPPORTUNITY FOR _____, BY HUMBLING MYSELF.
