Philippians 2:1 is setting me up for a complete _____. If we are united with Christ, we _____ do what he says next!

Five directives from fellowship with Christ (Philippians 2:1-2):

1. I must make sure my thoughts _____ with the thoughts of my fellow Christians.

- I need to allow other people to help _____ my thoughts.

- I don't completely abandon my own thoughts, but if they are inharmonious with other Christian's thoughts then I should ask, "Who is playing the wrong note? Is it me?"

2. I must have the same love for other people as _____.

- This is a _____, not an emotion.

3. I must be _____ other people's Spirit, and working at getting along even when I _____ with them.

4. I must reject selfishness or vanity. In fact, I need to consider _____ than me!

- Selfish ambition is whatever builds me _____, but also tears someone else _____.

- Vain conceit has to do with having too much _____ and/or desiring personal glory.

- Humility is knowing yourself and your abilities but willingly making yourself _____ and others more.

5. I need to be concerned with _____ that concern other people, just like I am for my own _____.

Summary of all the points: My attitude should be _____.

- Although Jesus was God, he didn't _____ of that equality.

- Jesus, who was in nature God, made himself a man. Talk about _____ yourself!

- Jesus emptied himself of his rights as God and became a _____; lower than a normal person.

- Jesus, in ultimate humility, allowed _____ to kill him (God) as though he were a criminal.

I should remember Jesus' example of humility and remember how MIGHTY he is. I should have fear and trembling as I attempt to honor a God whose humility I can _____.

God _____ work in me, to help me accomplish what he wants (Philippians 2:13).
