The Israelites became _____ to Babylon. Life had disappointed them.

Israel started becoming _____ Babylon in _____ BCE. Isaiah prophesied this _____ years earlier - God knew ahead of time.

I should remember that _____ my situation hundreds, thousands, even millions of year ago.

God is far greater than _____ the Israelites faced - even Marduk the Babylonian god.

God, in Isaiah 40, shows that wants to _____ people; he is not some far off Deity.

God wants to _____ when we are exhausted.

If I "hope in the Lord" I will renew my strength. Hoping in the Lord means to _____ for and _____ for God. It means to "order my _____ around a future event" (God's purpose or arrival to help).

While I am _____ my strength is renewed. I NEED TO LEARN FROM HIM, AND HOPE IN HIM!

- that means I should know his words. _____
