Can I be good _____? Yes, I can do good things _____ being a Christian.

Before he believed in Jesus, Paul was _____, and as far as we can tell did _____ deeds than anyone today!

When Paul turns to Jesus he realizes that all his " _____ " are worthless, and even a _____, compared to knowing Jesus.

The Greek word "knowing" is from the noun gnosis. It has to do with knowing something by _____ and _____.

In other words, I must experience the _____ to understand how great he is.

All good deeds, and great things, are a _____ compared to knowing Jesus.

People are rewarded based on their _____. (Matthew 16:27)

Jesus is the one who rewards, and rewards only go to those who haven't _____. (Matthew 16:26-27)

Too often we achieve empty victories, by focusing on " _____ " apart from Jesus!

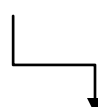

7 Habits

People often find themselves achieving victories that are empty, successes that have come at the expense of things they suddenly realize were far more valuable to them... How different our lives are when we really know what is deeply important to us, and, keeping that picture in mind, we manage ourselves each day to be and to do what really matters most.
