

Sermon Series: NonsenseSermon: Who Am I?*Bible Verses: Exodus 3:1-12*By: Jeff Piepho*Date: 11-17-13

God's word has called us to do _____ things and to avoid evil. But, an honest question is, " _____?" because we are not equipped to handle all these things.

When God speaks to Moses, he is establishing reality: God demands _____.

God communicated his plan to Moses: _____ are going to _____ the Israelites out of Egypt!

Moses knows he failed before, doesn't have what it takes, and asks God, " _____?" because he doesn't believe he's _____ for the plan.

God says, "I'll be _____!" The point is that when we do things God's way, success does not rely upon _____ ingenuity or ability. It relies upon _____, and what he is capable of.

Moses asked the _____ question!

It's not "Who _____?" it's "Who _____?"

It's not up to us to determine if we are _____ or strong enough to do what God wants, it's up to us _____ and let God take care of how it works out.

Who is He? He is a loving, forgiving, God, who has _____ on us when we ask.

Who is He? He is the God who never leaves us, as we _____ his words.
