

Series: Shut Your Yapper

Sermon: Tip of the Iceberg

Verses: Matthew 12:33-35 and Psalm 42

By: Jeff Piepho

Date: 12-15-13

We've learned in previous weeks:

What I _____ will be my _____ on judgment day.

Psalm 42 describes a _____, and a longing in our _____ to know God.

QUESTION: What do _____? God or the _____? That will be what my words are like.

My words indicate something deeper: _____ I am; and whether or not I really _____ for God.

Colossians 2:13: When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your sinful nature, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins...

God has makes us _____, even though we were _____!

The solution for the writer of Psalm 42 is to _____. That is what fulfills the _____ of his soul.

Ephesians 4:29: Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen

Without a thirst for God, our _____ will be like _____ food: potential for good, but just rotten.

Our words should only be _____ and _____ others up.

Promise:

I will live to increase my _____, so my words will be wholesome, helpful, and build other people up.

Signed: _____