1. Isaiah Acknowledges God's _____

2. Isaiah Acknowledges God's _____

The Hebrew word for Seraph has a root that meant _____!

The Hebrew phrase "Almighty" in "Lord Almighty" means a mass of persons organized for _____.

God will not judge _____ who says, "Jesus, forgive me!
You are my Lord!"

Isaiah says "I am ruined!" The Hebrew word for ruined means "To be _____ or perish"

4. Isaiah Accepts God's _____.

I am no longer _____ once I willingly accept God's forgiveness!

5. Isaiah has a _____ with God, after he accepts forgiveness.

Big Question: _____ the forgiveness God offers for my sins?

Don't miss next week!

A NEW SERIES is starting about Jesus, and a guy named Lazarus whom he raised from the dead. The big question is, why did God let Lazarus die!? Why not just fix the problem? And why does God allow us to go through difficult times like that? Where was Jesus while Lazarus was dying, and where is God when things are crazy? Don't miss it.
