On Sunday, a crowd of his followers _____ welcomed Jesus to Jerusalem, worshiping him, and joyfully praising God. This was a significant event, prophetically.

Jesus was _____ prophecies about the Messiah King: riding on a donkey, near the Mount of Olives, people threw coats down, they proclaimed him King, all right during the Passover, and the people couldn't contain themselves!

Problem: the crowds will _____ Jesus.

What _____ from praising Jesus to watching him be crucified?

Joshua wanted to know if God was for him or against him. God said, "_____." The real question is, is Joshua on _____? God has a plan!

Here's the big question: _____ on God's side, or do I expect God to be on _____? BIG DIFFERENCE!

Jesus' followers expected a military King, but the problem was that's _____ Jesus really was.

God is always working, but I need to get _____ out of the way.
