The worst feeling in the world _____, when you thought you were _____.

The guy from Jesus' story thought he was doing life right. He had what he needed, no big sins in his life, no addictions, he was _____.

The guy invested his life into things that would _____, and cannot bring ultimate ____.

ANYONE, including me, will lose if I am not _____ God. Being _____ God is where ultimate long-last, and deeply satisfying joy comes from.

TRUTH: We can prevent this problem; we can have _____!

God/Jesus should be my " _____ " and the one whom I move toward every day, with my heart, mind, finances, energy, etc.

_____, _____, love, and more are all available as God's Spirit works on me!

If we seek God's Kingdom (if we are " _____ ") then he promises to make sure we will have _____ we need!

5 Practical Applications on being rich toward God

THOUGHT: Remind myself that everything in this world is _____, except things regarding God.

THOUGHT: Evaluate my heart - "am I attempting to be rich towards _____, or toward God?"

ACTION: _____ Church so I can learn to love Jesus and refocus every week.

ACTION: Direct my _____ and _____ towards God, and not just myself.

ACTION: Use my mind to study his word (the Bible/Scripture).

Growth Groups are taking a break until January 24th. Considering joining one; it's a small group of people who get together once a week to take the sermon deeper and say, "What did that mean? How does it work?"

Here's a question for you to think about in the meantime: what is most valuable to you? Is it temporary or something that will last forever?
