Doing what you were _____ to do, being who you were NOT made to be IS DISASTROUS AND _____.

To live out what God has for me, I must first think of myself not too _____, not less than God has made me, but _____ with who and what God made me to be.

The question: What did God _____?

As Christians each member of the body _____ all the others. I belong _____.
(Church --> )

I have been taught, "I am independent and a sovereign individual" but that _____ the Biblical idea that, "_____ to each other."

God's gift for me is not someone general notion of "be a _____" - he has specifically gifted me with a _____ that will help people in the Church, the Church as a whole, or people get into the Church and get saved; all so that God will be glorified.

Practical Application:

I must _____ gifts and abilities God has given me.

- trial and error (what do I enjoy, and what do honest people tell me I'm good at)
- Strengths Finder 2.0 Book
- Spiritual Gifts tests

I must not think of myself too highly or too poorly, but just ask, "_____?"

I must find a place to serve the Church, and do it _____ and faithfully

(fill in the blank with an adjective that matches the gift; i.e. lead "boldly")

- mark on the card where I think I might be able to serve
