Sometimes, we don't think we have _____, even when it's already ours.

Why aren't we satisfied? Are we missing something? _____, we have _____
_____ from God, and God has blessed us with _____ blessing!!

All things are _____ God (created by God), and _____ back _____ him (how great God is).

All things are _____ God (he _____ us and nothing can happen within God allowing it).

I should recognize that all the good we do and beauty we see is designed by God, accomplished through God's strength, and intended for _____. My whole life should be directed at _____ glorifying and honoring God.

In Old Testament times, Jews worshipped God with animal _____. It is how they honored God, and nothing less than _____ of that animal could be given.

We are called to be _____, in order to worship God.

Being a living sacrifice, means my life should be _____ to God.

Practical Application: I need to determine what parts of my life have not yet _____
_____, and give those to God by _____.

List of areas I may be having trouble giving to God:

Dying to myself, even _____, to serve God is not dreary; it is a _____ that brings joy and the presence of God into my life.
