1 Thessalonians 5:14-15 teaches us to, " _____ the _____."

This part of 1 Thessalonians is teaching us how to _____ to the people who should do better, or who test our patience, _____ church family.

We should give a warning to church members who are lazy, _____, or simply not _____ like they should (_____).

By "warn them" Paul means we should _____ them about the error of their ways.

We should encourage those Christians in our community who feel _____, are not _____, and don't feel able to take risks for Jesus.

I should help those in my church who are weak (_____, physically, emotionally) by _____ them up.

- Which of the above people annoy you the most?
- How do you typically react?
- Think of a past scenario, or imagine a scenario with a person acting in the way that really annoys you. What actions should you take, based on God's word. Be specific in your actions.
