You can't always get what _____ (God doesn't always meet _____).

Naaman _____ God to heal him through Elisha, with a _____ miracle.

Naaman expected _____, rituals and incantations, and _____ healing after seeing the prophet.

Naaman wanted to be healed, but his _____ about how that would happen were _____ met.

Not _____, still _____.
God wants us to do the little things, and he really does _____.

Sometimes when we don't see God affecting things in a _____, we take it as a sign God doesn't exist, or that God doesn't _____. But, that means my expectations _____, not God.

God can work in the midst of the little, _____, normal things of life - and that's a _____ deal!

What are some little, non-dramatic things, God wants us to do?
