

Sermon: Offended by Mercy

Bible Verses: Luke 13:10-17

By: Jeff Piepho

Date: 7-16-17

Way too often Christians to _____ to people instead of _____ people.

Jesus was _____ during the _____. A common religious practice.

Jesus healed a woman, who had a _____ and Physical problem, allowing her to experience Spiritual and physical _____.

JESUS _____!

The synagogue leader was indignant that Jesus would heal on the Sabbath; the leader chose " _____ " over _____.

Jesus answers: setting people free _____. No matter what the _____ say.

Christianity is not about " _____ things, follow the rules" - it is about "JESUS _____! He is our healer!" That is our _____.

Too often, we're more offended that a rule was _____ than we are willing _____.

We have to make a choice: be offended or delighted by mercy.

I, _____ CHOOSE DELIGHT!

TAKE IT HOME THIS WEEK:

- _____ the freedom Jesus offers.
- _____ someone who doesn't deserve forgiveness and let the _____ _____. Offer love and forgiveness, tell them about Jesus, invite them to Church with you (especially if they hurt you).

A skeptic expresses his problems with the idea of Heaven and Hell. If God is so merciful (like this sermon suggests) why does Hell even exist?

<http://truthrevolution.tv/audioarchives/my-problems-with-heaven-and-hell/>

Growth Group prep (to learn about Growth Groups visit www.revo.church/growth-groups)

Growth groups are currently taking a break! But visit our website to learn more about them.