

Sermon: Respect and Redemption

Bible Verses: John 8:1-11

By: Jeff Piepho

Date: 7-2-17

Jesus did what we should do: _____ the rules, _____ the rebel.

The religious leaders wanted the lady who committed adultery punished. Punishment was their law, given from _____ himself.

LAW'S GREATER PURPOSE #1: Paraphrase of Romans 13:8b - "Whoever loves another person has satisfied and _____ of God's rules."

LAW'S GREATER PURPOSE #2: The laws and rules were never meant to prove how good we are, or show that we are better than other people; they simply help us become _____ of _____! (Romans 3:20)

Once we realize that "we aren't good enough" we should seek _____!

When Jesus gave his quote about "you without sin cast the first stone," he was reminding them that the _____ we have all sinned!

Jesus also promoted _____ for the woman caught in adultery. JESUS COMPLETELY FULFILLED THE LAW.

I want to be part of a Church that is _____, totally forgiving, lightens people's burden and still calls people to live a Holy life. Therefore, _____ should be that type of person.

LEARN MORE! Our 30-Minute radio/vodcast:

Learn more about "untamed mercy" and how it applies to our lives.

http://truthrevolution.tv/audioarchives/untamed_mercy/

Growth Group prep (to learn about Growth Groups visit www.revo.church/growth-groups)

- Why is it easier to apply the "rule" of the law than it is the greater purposes of the law?
- What's a situation you're in now that requires you offering mercy, but still calling people to be Holy?