Isaiah Acknowledges God's _____. Have I?

Isaiah Acknowledges God's _____. Do I?

The Hebrew word for Seraph has a root that meant _____/_____/_____

The Hebrew phrase "Almighty" in "Lord Almighty" means a mass of persons organized for _____.

God will not judge _____ who says, "Jesus, forgive me! You are my Lord!"

Isaiah says "I am ruined!"

The Hebrew word for ruined means "To be _____ or perish"

Isaiah Accepts God's _____. Have I?

I am no longer _____ once I willingly accept God's forgiveness!

After Isaiah is forgiven, he is changed and _____ for God. " _____ "

Practical: Too often we don't acknowledge these _____. This week I should question whether I've really taken these parts of God to heart, whether or not I've accepted his _____, and if I've truly changed and said, "GOD _____, I'LL GO FOR YOU!"

Which of the "Isaiah" statements above do you think you need to work on most?

Why is the fact that Isaiah shouted, "Here am I! Send me!" at the end of his encounter with God so important?

Are you serving in the Church? Have you said, "SEND ME!" yet? If not, why not? If yes, do you take your commitment serious as you serve a HOLY God, or not?

What gets in your way of saying, "Send me!" Important dates? Family stuff? Laziness? Netflix?

What do you think Isaiah's response to a "really important thing" that got in the way of him serving God would've been, after his encounter?
