God _____ strongly support me... he's looking for people to support.

You may _____ had it, but if you ~~forget~~ _____ it, you can't receive the blessing _____ it.

Love defined here: a range of feelings and decisions including _____, lovingkindness, mercy, goodness, faithfulness, _____ and love.

Faithfulness defined here: absolute integrity of character, _____, living by God's Holy standards, certainty in behavior (as to what you will do because you are faithful).

I should be characterized by: _____

We are told to not let "Love and faithfulness" _____. Why? Because they don't naturally _____. We have to fight for their presence in our lives.

I must _____ loyal love to my neck and write loyal love on my heart; i.e. consistently _____ to make it a _____ part of my character.

Take it home: I will live by loyal love and keep my commitments and work on all the decisions, feelings, and actions defined by "love" and "faithfulness" (above). I will ask, "_____ are love and faithfulness" trying to sneak away from me? I will figure out _____ situation I need to double down on my loyal love, and do it. But, first, if I have not really received God's love and faithfulness I will _____ from him and even pursue him by the 10-Week Challenge.

- Where is it hard for you right now to show LOYAL LOVE (the definition above of Love and Faithfulness)?
- Why do you think those things naturally walk away and we must fight to hold onto them?
