"LIFE SHOULDN'T BE _____!" How do we clear the obstacles out of our way?

My options: I can trust in _____ or trust in _____.

The Lord has given our _____ the _____ for wisdom and knowledge.

1 Corinthians 1:25: The foolishness of God is _____ than human wisdom.

The _____ God will ever give me, is better than the _____ I could ever come up with myself.

I must trust God will all my heart (_____, emotions, _____, intellect, will) as I recognize his capacity for wisdom and good plans far exceeds anyone else.

It isn't some abstract concept, or just my life in general that I trust God with. I must take all of God's _____, and TRUST GOD that his _____ will lead me in the right direction.

When I submit to God's teachings God himself removes _____ in my life!
He will _____ me what to do and direct my life!!

Take it home:

I will continue to do the 10-Week Challenge. As I learn more about what God's teachings and commands are I will _____.

I should also evaluate where I have NOT stepped out in obedience, but I've tried to figure out my own path instead of relying on what God teaches.

Some potential places that God teaches on specifically that I may not have trusted and obeyed:
forgiveness, generosity, not going into debt, not charging others interest, not exasperating my children, not fearing my future, believing God has forgiven me, only taking jobs that are honest and allow me to serve God and be around his people still, romantic relationships, not pursuing addicting behaviors, loving my enemies, not lusting, keeping my word, pray consistently with intensity, honor my parents, hold each other accountable, honor my marriage, tell people about Jesus.
