Sermon: How to Have Peace and Prosperity
Bible Verses: Proverbs 3:1-2
By: Jeff Piepho Date: 1-7-18

_____ matter.

Biblical Proverbs are instructions for us, but they are not promises; they are principles for how _____ designed the world to _____.

Wisdom's and God's teachings and commands are _____ that delivers long life, peace, and prosperity.

God's Word: You may have _____ it, but if you _____ it, you can't receive the blessing _____ it.

" _____ on God's Teaching Brings What is _____ "

I must KEEP (store/_____/protect) God's words in my HEART (thoughts/feelings/_____/desires).

Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"
(Matthew 4:4)

Take it home: I will _____ (feast on God's teachings and commands) 10 minutes every day, minimum, and commit to my growth group to do so. This week, read Proverbs 3 three times, and Matthew 5 at least once.

Take it home, to help others: I can help drive people towards God's word by _____ the blessings I experience when I do things God's way.

- What does most of the world say the path to peace and prosperity is? How about long life?
- We don't believe Christians will always be prosperous. How can we believe this verse and John 16:33?
