

Series: ALONE

Sermon: When it Feels Like Evil Has Won

Bible Verse: Genesis 37-50

By: Pastor Jeff Piepho Date: 9-30-18

God's Kingdom is an _____. Jesus claims we should rejoice when we receive bad, because our reward will be _____.

When it feels like evil _____, remember that God is _____.

Joseph had a dream from God, but his brothers _____ into _____.

Joseph worked hard and was very successful in Potiphar's house. He refused to commit adultery, was _____, and thrown into prison.

God will never _____ me or _____ me, and he goes before me.

Joseph is brought into Pharaoh's home and is in charge of _____!

What _____ intend as evil, _____ can use for good.

Practical Application

- When I'm feeling down and out, at my very worst, I must follow Joseph's example and keep doing the _____ and, if I'm a Jesus-follower, trust that God has not left me.

- When bad things happen, and people treat me terribly, I should remind myself that God can use _____ as long as I keep following Jesus.

My question: What is one difficult/painful thing I'm facing now? What _____ to show that I trust God in the middle of this?

Growth Group prep (to learn about Growth Groups visit www.revo.church/growth-groups)

- What did you put for "My question" above?

- In what ways is it hard for you to trust God in hard circumstances?

- Think about your past. Have you gone through anything bad that you now see as a blessing?