

Series: Healthy Habits

Sermon: Listen to God-Honoring Music

Bible Verses: Romans 12:2

By: Jeff Piepho

Date: 3-24-19

Healthy Habit to have: Listening to _____ (“Christian”) Music 80+% of the time.

People’s feelings and thoughts _____ things we aren’t even aware of.

This world _____ to be just like everyone else in human history: a sinner who rejects God and is often completely oblivious to how messed up I really am.

My actions and feelings will _____ with how I _____.

God does not just say “behave differently” he says we have to “_____.”
Romans 8:5, Proverbs 4:23, Philippians 4:8

We are to "think" about such things - but "think" comes from the Greek word meaning to _____
_____. (Philippians 4:8)

“But I don’t like Christian music!” Until my mind gets fully renewed, I will have to _____ enjoying Christian music. It’s like a cycle: the more I listen to it (and read God’s word) the more my mind
_____. And the more it changes, the more I’ll _____ the music.

Artist	Song	Song
KB	Long Live the Champion	No Chains
Andy Mineo	You Can’t Stop Me	None of My Business
Trip Lee	Insomniac
Zach Williams	Fear is a Liar	Old Church Choir
Toby Mac	I just need U.	The Elements
For King and Country	joy	God Only Knows
Phinehas	Burning Bright
Skillet	Feel Invincible	Lions
Lauren Daigle	You Say	Trust In You

Take it Home: this week I will try to find _____ Christian musicians/groups that I can get into. I will also go on a one week fast from secular music to try to shift my thinking. Afterwards, I’ll attempt to make about _____ of my music God-honoring and _____ glorifying evil.