

Sermon: I'm Good, but Not Perfect. When Will God be Satisfied with Me?

Bible Verses: Joshua 13-18 and James 1:2-4

By: Jeff Piepho

Date: February 2, 2020

There is always a _____.
What does God expect of me and will he ever be _____?

Even after fighting many battles, and dominating the "promise land", there were still large areas to be _____.

_____ can grow up easily, and distract from God's _____ for our lives. (Deuteronomy 29:18)

* God won't quit working on me until _____ is right and no _____ exist. ****

God doesn't command, or even want, Joshua to do this in his _____.

LETTING GOD FIGHT looks like:

- obedience, honesty, _____, prayer,
trusting God's time, begging the Lord for help.

Joshua - and I - need to be obedient even in the _____ before that root becomes _____.

When God pushes Israel to keep going taking over more and more and more, He is developing _____ which leads to _____!

NOTE: Perseverance is something you do _____ Christ, not something you do _____ Christ. (Larry Benson)
i.e. I persevere when I'm going to God and letting him fight my battles.