

Series: DILIGENCE

Sermon: Words Have Power

Bible Verses: Proverb 18:21 and Matthew 12:33-37

By: Jeff Piepho Date: March 1, 2020

The tongue has the _____ of _____ and _____.

Every word _____.

Every word _____.

Every word will be _____.

We will be judged for every _____ or _____ word we've said.

My words are the _____ of who I really am (what's inside my mind).

I must train _____ to _____ rightly, so my words produce life.

GOOD ADVICE FROM PROVERBS:

1) It is often better to say _____ than _____.

2) False _____ or lies get me and my friends nowhere, but _____ (even when it stings) is much better than falsehood.

3) When sharing truth, I must be _____ and harshness is usually _____.

Where do I need to be more diligent and careful with my words?

---

---

---

I can be a diligent _____ with my words.