Sometimes my plans _____.

When we "commit" our plans to God, we _____ them into his authority. I _____ the responsibility over to him and out of my hands; _____ is in control.

Committing a plan to God implies _____.

"Your plan" in Hebrew means "your _____ and _____"

Revolution Translation of Prov 16:3

If you fully _____ your goals to God then your _____ thoughts and intentions will be successful.

How do we roll control of our plan to God? When/how do I alter my plan:

1. My plans cannot go against God's _____. Or, if my plan is leading me away from God I need a change.

2. If my _____ or leaders suggest a change, I need to _____. SERIOUSLY. REALLY. FOR REAL.

3. I must be willing to _____ and _____ while I pray.

4. If my situation looks like it is changing, or not going as I planned, I should reconsider if it's what God wanted.

Proverbs 16:3 is about God changing _____, so my plan is a successful _____ plan.
