

Series: Making Wise Decisions
Sermon: Do I Change My Mind?
By: Jeff Piepho

Bible Verses: 2 Chronicles 25
Date: May 22, 2022

FACT #1: I must have the right data to make wise decisions.

FACT #2: I must have the _____ to carry out my decisions.

FACT #3: I can have an awareness of God's spirit speaking, my intuition, and more.

FACT #4: I must consider whether God would _____ my plan or not.

FACT #5: Emotional _____ sometimes prevents me from correcting a wrong decision.

The wrong thing won't become the _____ thing just because I keep _____!

Amaziah had a King's _____: I'm going to war, gonna make a name for myself, plunder gold and silver, and build my Kingdom.

Amaziah had hired people from the nation of _____ - but, God was not with _____. So, a prophet warns: do not let them fight on your team, or you'll lose!

Amaziah was emotionally invested in his goal and his plan.

My question: How invested am I in my plans and goals? Am I willing _____? _____?

God can bless the _____ even if I have to lose the wrong thing because our God is strong enough to do _____!!

TRUTH TO REMEMBER:

-God is _____, believe it (Psalm 34:8).

-God is _____ (omnipotent), believe it (Jeremiah 32:17).

-God cares and is interested _____ (Psalm 139:7-8, 100:5, 139:13)!

Instead of asking, "What will I _____ if I back out of this bad decision?" ask "What will _____, and then what will happen?" or just say, "The Lord can give me more than that."

Practical Application

Assess: What decisions have I made that were the wrong decisions?

Where have I been worried about _____ something?

What would God have me do in that situation?

Then: Obey wholeheartedly knowing that God is powerful, good, and interested in me.
