Every conversation I have, post I make, and action I take _____.

_____ a great example of a good and faithful servant. Paul had _____ like him.

Timothy was "one-souled" with Paul. Timothy _____, mind, _____ and mission of his teacher, Paul!

"If you want what your leader has, _____ what your leader _____."

Timothy felt a _____ for others, a genuine concern.

Timothy cared about what Jesus cared about! He literally lived ("snip") _____ the gospel.

Timothy _____ through many years of following Paul, sacrifice, love, and serving.

Timothy (1) _____ (2)served and loved _____ (3)for many _____ (4) even in difficult circumstances (5) and never walked _____, but (6) made others _____ while (7) working _____.

What will _____ when he looks at the fingerprints I left?

Is there enough " _____ " to conclude I'm a servant like Timothy, much less a believer?

Today, I need to _____ I can be that person. Or at least, begin to start serving in a way that allows my fingerprints to look more like Timothy's.
