

Series: Alert and Ready (1 Peter)

Sermon: What Do We Do With Sin? Mercy.

By: Jeff Piepho

Bible Verses: Various

Date: February 6, 2022

What do we _____ when someone _____?

Option 1: Mercy means we definitely forgive the sinner and then _____ them accordingly.

- The Bible _____ that the Church, or us as Christians, should punish people for sin.

Option 2: Mercy means we _____ peoples' sin.

- The word "sin" appears 472 times in the Bible, and _____ of the verses suggest ignoring it.

- Ignoring sin is _____, and it _____ the same as mercy.

Option 3: Mercy means forgiving them in person, then moving on with _____ about the sin.

- Proverbs 17:9 makes it clear that sometimes "letting it drop" is _____ choice.

- The first part of Proverbs 17:9 implies some _____ should be taken, but we don't rehash being offended.

Option 4: Mercy means any Spiritual persons' primary responsibility when someone is caught in sin is _____.

RESTORE: In Greek the word restore means to _____, repair, or to help _____ any deficiency.

- Examples include setting a _____ bone, mending a broken net. Making something usable again.

Passive mercy is simply not _____ someone who harmed you.

Untamed mercy is the passionate forgiveness and restoration of people; it is the _____ of the _____ that they should've lost.

- When restoring someone, _____ is key.

They are likely _____ by their own guilt already.

- Anyone who believes he is _____ has a _____ to help restore others.

- Part of _____ in our Christian life is the ability to help people be restored _____ they sin.

Examples: