

Series: Mark (Jesus - the Son of God)

Sermon: Did Jesus Hate His Family?

By: Jeff Piepho

Bible Verses: Mark 3:20-35

Date: September 1, 2024

Jesus family was coming _____, take control over, or get control of Jesus. They thought he had _____ and were not affirming his ministry.

Jesus' brothers _____ in him, and even his mother who knew who he was, must have been concerned and confused.

The religious teachers of his time claimed that Jesus was _____.
He was not understood by the people who should've understood him the most!

Even "Biblical Families" were _____.

*BIG TRUTH: Even though all families have _____, God can still do _____ and in my family, as I seek him.

No matter what was going on with the people near him, who didn't get him or turned against him:

- Jesus didn't _____ and get mad.

- Jesus didn't _____ his ministry.

- He continued to do what _____ and followed God's plan.

Jesus says that the people who are around him, those sinners who are now following God and learning the truth, and leaving their old lives (and in some cases, leaving their families) _____.

Jesus says his _____ family is greater than his _____ family.
Faith family is better than _____.

Practical Questions:

Am I a child of God because I believed in the _____ given to Abraham?

Am I forming _____ with my brothers and sisters here, in Church? Genuine, honest, real, jerk-friend, friendships?

In what ways have I treated Church like " _____ " rather than "a _____ to invest my life in"?

In what ways have I prioritized my _____ wrongly?

In what ways have I abandoned my _____ wrongly, when maybe they could be saved?