The people's reaction to Jesus driving out demons was to wonder if he was the descendant of King David, the _____.

The people brought a man _____ to Jesus. When he healed the demon-possessed man from blindness and muteness everyone was "astonished" – beside themselves with amazement and _____.

The religious teacher claimed that the _____ was using _____ power to drive out demons and heal people.

By suggesting that Jesus' power was from Beelzebul those teachers were purposefully _____ of Jesus, attributing his amazing miracles to Satan and saying that the true God opposes him because he is possessed and powered by a _____.

Jesus gives three reasons he wasn't using Satanic power:

1. Satan wouldn't _____ himself and oppose his own work.
2. If Jesus was using Satanic power to oppose demons the Pharisees _____!
3. Jesus must drive out demons as _____ before he saves the world!

Blasphemy of the Holy Spirit is _____ act.

Blasphemy of the Holy Spirit involves:

- Purposeful _____ of Jesus as the Messiah, despite evidence.
- An absolute, _____ refusal to believe that Jesus is God.
- Those actions lead to attributing an act of the Holy Spirit, that you know is an act of God, to _____, _____ the work of God.

Jesus sets clear _____ to know if we are followers of his or not: our mouths.
